Table Grace

Show us the wisdom by which we can give eyes to read in exchange for those that cannot: feet that can walk unbound: hands that can work and not lie idle: resources sufficient for those who starve. Thank you Lord for your boundless provision for us today and every day. Amen

October 18, 2018 Program: State Street Miracle

By Rich Shimko

Trish Cofiell introduced the State Street Miracle, describing them as talented, enthusiastic, and joyful. The Miracles are a singing group of adults with intellectual disabilities associated with the Media Theatre on State Street. They were ably directed by Roger Ricke and accompanied on keyboard by Tim Haney. Both Trish and Roger provided commentary about the group's accomplishments and the benefits to the members of belonging to the group. Roger said his pet peeve is when the public describe the chorus members as kids. He said they are adults and they all have jobs and pay taxes.

The Miracles have been performing for 11 years and have given concerts in both the Pennsylvania and U.S. Capitol buildings. The Miracles performed 12 songs, including several strong solo segments and one combo song and dance number. They called up three friends, Ann (Seidman), George and Gladys, for the finale, a rousing performance of God Bless America. It was extremely touching.
